The partitioner is in receipt of 2 pensions - a Mysore State pension of Rs 202 p.m. + a pension of Rs 150 from the 'Two Lakh Fund'. We have nothing to do with the latter. The fund is administered by the Resident. As for the former altho it has been usual to continue State pensions, such continuance is not guaranteed.

The case will be considered on its merits after the death of the holder.

The petitioner may be informed that the question of the continuance to his son of the pension enjoyed by him does not arise now and calls for no orders at present.

As regards his son's right to the Inam Village, it may be stated that it is not a matter for the order of Govt. No recognition of such right by Govt is necessary. The matter is one of law & if the person whom the petitioner calls his son is legally entitled to it he will let the Village.

The other members of the late Nawab's own family who are entitled to the benefit of the pension are his second wife & children who are living together.

R

This attention is invited to the printed leaflet containing a short history of the various State pensions of the Mysore Province. It will be seen from para 6 thereof that the Commissioners for the Settlement of Mysore in 1799 granted these pensions only during the lifetime of the grantee. But as a fact this condition has not been observed in most cases and the pensions either in whole or in part were continued to the descendants and families of the original recipients. As no papers of the period are forthcoming it is not possible to say what rules had been laid down for regulating the amount of pensions to the heirs and families of the pensioners on their death. The practice however has been to continue the pensions to the independent relations of the pensioners if

1. They are deserving of help. As unfortunately the relatives happen to be almost always utterly destitute, there are now very few of the original pensions which are not being enjoyed by some one or other of the original family and which have lapsed to Government in their entirety. At the same time there are very few cases in which the original pension has been continued in full. It has been the practice to reduce it by half or a third at each succession. Please see para 7 of the same leaflet.

2. What are the precise considerations on which exceptional treatment is accorded to this family?

The consideration appears to be that this family is a very old and distinguished one. The name was held in high esteem by eminent European officers in Mysore. The records now available contain an instance mentioning

one occasion when the pension of this family also came in for retrenchment along with other pensions of the state but was subsequently restored to its original amount as desired by His Highness Maharaja Krishna Raja Wodeyar ^{in 1829}
It was admitted that the pension of Aboul nabi was "of a class not to be interfered with". This ^{order} however, does not seem to have been accepted as placing the question on a permanent basis.
For we find the above Aboul nabi himself entertaining doubt as to the continuance of his pension to his children after his death as can be inferred from Mr. Stokes' letter to the Comr of Mysore in 1837 The whole pension however was sanctioned to Aboul nabi & his son Whutbudin and ever since then at no time does the families' right for the continuation of the full pension seem to have been challenged.

Submitted to His Highness.

With reference to the question of continuing the State pension of Rs.202 enjoyed by the late Nabob Abdul Nabi Khan of Honnali to his son Nabob Sher Khan, His Highness enquired, in order dated the 18th July 1907, whether all pensions of this kind were not subject to gradual reduction, and what were the precise considerations on which exceptional treatment was accorded to this particular family.

The answers to these questions are furnished in the office notes on the file. It will be seen that these pensions were originally granted for the life time of the grantees, but on their death, portions, and in some cases the whole, of the pensions were renewed to their descendants. It is not known what rules had been laid down for regulating the amount of pensions to be granted to the heirs or families of pensioners on their death, but the practice has been to gradually reduce the pensions by one-half or one-third at the death of each pensioner; but in some cases the whole of the pension has been continued to the pensioner's heirs.

As regards the second point, it is seen that this family has been enjoying the full amount of the pension without any reduction. The pension was originally granted in 1826 to Nabob Abdul Nabi Khan in consideration of his father's connection with the Mysore State under Hyder Ali and Tippu Sultan and of his own distinguished services in the Mahratta War.

A few years later, in consequence of a general reduction in the Mutfarkhat and other establishments of His Highness the late Maharaja Krishnaraja Wadayar Bahadur III, this pension was also reduced, but His Highness was stated to have "admitted the claims of Abdul Nabi to be of a class that might not be interfered with". Nabob Abdul Nabi Khan died in 1836 and Mr. H. Stokes, Superintendent of the Nagar Division, in recommending the continuance of the pension in full to the family of the deceased, wrote as follows:-

"In consideration of the high rank and character "of this distinguished family, inferior probably to "none in Mysore, and more especially of the many excellent qualities of the late Nabob which were such "as to secure for him the respect and esteem of every "European with whom he was brought in contact, I beg
 "most strongly to recommend the claims of his family
 "now submitted to the liberal consideration of the "Commissioner and the Madras Government."

The full amount of the pension was accordingly continued to Nabob Khutbudin Khan. On the death of the latter in 1859, the pension was continued without deduction to his son Nabob Abdul Nabi Khan, now deceased.

It is for these reasons that I ~~am~~ recommended the continuance of the full amount of the pension to the son of the deceased pensioner, but if His Highness considers that a reduction should be made, the pension may, as suggested by the Secretary, be fixed at Rs.150 per mensem.

I submit in this connection a memorial received from Phizoo Beebee Begum, a widow of the deceased Nabob. She says that the son left by the deceased was born of an illegal ^{marriage} ~~connection~~, and has no

(vide linked file)
 II

N

"right or title to inherit the Nabob's property." She claims that she is the legitimate heir of the deceased and prays that the full amount of the pension might be continued to her. It is however clear from the Deputy Commissioner's report No. 768/465 of the 21st February 1907, that the Nabob's marriage with Asruffanissa Begum, a convert from Hinduism, was legal, and that there is no question as to the legitimacy of their son, Sher Khan. The deceased has also left a registered will dated the 29th November 1906, in which he has declared his son Sher Khan to be his heir and successor and has stated that his wife, petition~~er~~ Phi-zoo Beebee Begum, had been divorced some time before and that she had no right to his property. She is besides stated to have been living separately.

I am therefore of opinion that her claim to the pension is inadmissible.

Order.

Under the circumstances the pension may be continued in full for the present life.
But it would perhaps be well to embody in the order a statement to the effect that the pension, like others of its kind, is liable to reduction, on the death of the holder for the time being.

There appears to be no doubt as to the legitimacy of Sher Khan.

Plas T. dated 28th October 1859 from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, to the Commissioner of Mysore, died at Hounali on the 4th December last, leaving behind him the following heirs: -

- (1) Son Shair Khan, aged about 13^{1/2} years,
- (2) Daughter Amirunissa Begum, aged about 9 years.
- (3) Wife Ashrafunissa Begum
- (4) Wife Faizabi Begum.

3. The Son, daughter and wife Ashrafunissa Begum reside at Hounali, while Faizabi Begum is living in Bangalore. The deceased Nawab has executed a *Will dated the 29th November 1906 which has been duly registered at the Sub-Registrar's Office, Hounali, constituting his son Shair Khan his sole heir and Successor. In this document he distinctly states that his wife Faizabi Begum (No 4) was divorced

by

by him according to the Mahomedan Law, some years ago, and that she has no manner of right to his property after his death.

4. By the said will, the deceased's widow Ashrafunissa Begum (No 3) mother of Shair Khan, and Rustum Ali Khan, nephew of the deceased Nawab, are constituted guardians of the minor son Shair Khan.

5. Out of the Government of India Pension of Rs 150/-, a sum of Rs 37-8-0 is reported to be paid direct from the District or the Honourable the Resident's Treasury at Bangalore to Faizabi Begum; (No 4 in para 2 above), since 1st April 1905. Faizabi Begum is the daughter of Shahzāda Bibi (widow of the uncle of the deceased Nawab Abdul Kabi Khan) to whom the late late Nawab was paying Rs 75 monthly. The Pension Order now in force in the name of the deceased Nawab in respect of the Government of India pension is therefore for Rs 112. 8. 0 Only.

6. Out of the Mysore State Pension of Rs 202/-, the deceased Nawab was paying Rs 58 per mensem to his uncle Sileman Sahib and Rs 15 to his sister - Bade Bibi. On the death of the said Sileman Sahib, Rs 15 was sanctioned to his widow Pacha Bi and Rs 43 to his son Hassan Ali Khan. Vide Proceedings No. Fl. 4614-6 Sauda 475-05-6
dated 18th December 1906.

7. The pension of Rs 15/- which used to be paid to Bade Bibi, the late Nawab's sister, is being continued to her son Rusthum Ali Khan who

R

who has been constituted guardian of (minor), Shair Khan.

8. Under these circumstances, I am of opinion that the Government of India pension of Rs 112.8.. and the Mysore State Pension of Rs 202 enjoyed by the deceased Nawab may be continued in the name of his son Nawab Shair Khan Jamund (minor), for the support of the family, - on the understanding that he makes the following payments out of the Mysore State Pension, viz: —

- (1) Rs 15/- to Pacha Bi
- (2) Rs 43/- to Hassan Ali Khan
- and (3) Rs 15/- to Rusthum Ali Khan.

9. The deceased Nawab holds a Kayamgutta village (Hanuma-Sagara) in the Hornali Taluk.
The

The assessment value of the village is Rs 430. 8. 0 and the Gutta payable to Government is Rs 139 per annum. The late Nawab was in good circumstances.

regarding the claimants to the pension of the deceased Nawab Abdul Nabe Khan of Hormati, I have the honour to report that I held an enquiry into the matter of the marriage of Ashrafaiyya Begum with the late Nawab and that from the evidence adduced, I am satisfied that the marriage was a legal one. The record of evidence is herewith submitted, which it will

it will be seen that Ashraffanissa Begum; who went by the name of Ejjavva, before she became a convert to Mahomedanism, was the daughter of the Lingayat Patel of Ejjanipura, a village near Hemali, that she underwent the prescribed rituals of conversion and that she was legally married to the late Nawab. The man who acted as Vakil on behalf of the bride is now dead but the persons who acted as Shavaidi (witnesses) on behalf of the bridegroom as well as other Mahomedan and Hindu gentlemen who were present on the occasion of the marriage have deposed to the Nikka ceremony having been regularly performed according to the Mahomedan Law. The Lingayat mother of the Begum has also spoken to the Nikka having taken place with her consent.

2. The marriage is stated to have taken place in December 1891. The Khazi who officiated as priest at the marriage is stated to have kept no record of it. Nawab Shair Khan was born on 11th December 1893 and there is no question as to his legitimacy. When I saw the late Nawab in July 1906, he introduced Shair Khan to me as his son and heir.

3. It is an open secret that Muiz Bi um Suleman Khan fell out with the late Nawab and was backing him. Muiz Bi is stated to have lived separately from the Nawab ever since she was married to him. She was present at Hamah at the time of Ashraffunissa Begum's Nikkah and it is in evidence that, dissatisfied with the marriage, she went to the length of sending word to the Nawab

Nawal that she would retaliate by marrying another man.

I have the honour to

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

I know the late Nawab Abdul Nabi Khan. I knew him from my boyhood. The Nawab died 2 or 3 months ago. He was married three times. The eldest wife was from the Savanur Nawab's family. She died several years ago, maybe about 30 years. After her death, he married the daughter of ~~the~~ his uncle Hassamli Khan. I believe her name is Fairuz Bi. This lady is alive. The third wife is the daughter of a Lingayat Gowda of Upanipur. This woman was converted to Mahomedanism and was married to Nawab Abdul Nabi Khan according to the Nikka method. This Nikka marriage took place about 17 years ago.

I was present at the Nikka marriage ceremony. - Myself and Jagg Khan acted as witnesses on behalf of the Nawab Sahab and Mrutyuja Khan acted as Vakil on behalf of the ~~said~~ bride. - The said Mrutyuja Khan is now dead. - ~~the~~ On

I know the late Nawab Abdul Nabi Khan well — He has two wives surviving him — The elder, Faiz Bibi lives in Bangalore — The younger, Ashrafun-issa Begum lives at Honali — About 16 or 17 years, Ashrafunissa Begum was married to the late Nawab Sahab according to the Nikka method. I was present at the Nikka ceremony just before the "Nikka", Ashrafunissa Begum who was till then a Saigayat by caste, was converted to Mahomedanism. Khaji Masu Meys officiated as priest at the "Nikka" marriage ceremony. The Nawab Sahab fixed the "Mehar" at Rs. 1525. — The marriage was celebrated in the presence of a large assembly of Mahomedans & Hindus.

The Nikka was celebrated according to Mahomedan rites and was quite legal - The Nawab Sahib has a son and a daughter by Ashraffunissa Begum They are his legitimate children, according to Mahomedan Shastras -
There is no question as to the son Sher Khan being the legitimate heir of the late Nawab Sahib - Just before Ashraffunissa Begum's Nikka marriage, Fazir Ali his elder wife sent word thro' Bajam Meysa to the Nawab Sahib ^{to the effect} ^{that} his proposal to marry Ashraffunissa Begum by Nikka was unfair, but

She is the daughter of a Lingayat Jorda of Ujjainipura — She was converted to Mahomedanism and married to the Nawab Sahab according to the Nikka method. I was present when the Nikka marriage took place about 16 or 17 years ago — I acted as witness (Shawahidi) at the marriage. The other witness was Maqsum Sahab.

The ceremony was celebrated according to Mahomedan Shastras. Khaji Masum Meysa Sahab read the Nikka that from the Koran. One Muntaziz Khan was "Vakil" on behalf of the bride and myself and Masum Khan were witnesses on behalf of the Nawab Sahab. We ascertained that Ashrafunissa Begum gave her free consent to the marriage and the marriage was celebrated afterwards in the presence of a large assembly. It is not customary for the witnesses at a Nikka marriage to attest any document. The marriage took place in the Nawab Sahab's house. The Nawab Sahab has a son and a daughter born to him by Ashrafunissa Begum. They were born after the Nikka marriage. The elder wife - Faiz Bi left Bonali a year after the Nawab's Nikka marriage with Ashrafunissa Begum. She was dissatisfied with the Nikka marriage and sent word to the Nawab Sahab that she would go to Bangalore and marry another man as he had married a dingayat woman by "Nikka".
